Cover of the Friesian Horse Magazine October November 2021 to increase awareness of this special mare.

Educating the members and the public on how arduous and difficult it truly is to become a KFPS Model mare. Large article on how Liza made Model and her Journey to it.

In an effort to be socially conscious (as an owner at the time) helping other Friesian horses at Fenway Foundation, Liza represented the breed as a kind and gentle mare, such a typical characteristic of the breed. Being so willing and kind she allowed a novice to enjoy a ride on her and feel safe. While raising money. That said she captured the Highest bid of $300 won to ride Liza (the online auction for Friesian mare Precious and her foal)

Featured monthly on the FHANA Webpage and in CMS adds again raising awareness and increasing public knowledge of the breed, what a mare can accomplish and showing the versatility of the breed in the purest sense, by being on the cover of the magazine.
