Chapter News

Atlantic Canada Friesian Horse Association

Well we have had a long winter here in the Atlantic provinces! As I quickly write up our news on April 30/2018, I am looking out onto the river across the road from my house and still see snow along its banks and marshmellows throughout the fields! It is safe to say spring has arrived late but it has come.....maybe! We gathered together in January, on Prince Edward Island, for another meeting and Anna Osinga-Bouma, our president. SHE gave a brilliant demo on grooming our horses for a keuring using her very special mare, "Ylse" (Remmelt x Feitse). Ylse is 19 years young!

Our AGM took us to another province, Nova Scotia, where the members gathered at the house of Lyla Tremblay and Ralf Wiesendahl on April 28/2018. It was a beautiful day had by all, lots of food, electrifying conversation about our pending Keuring and of course, a breathtaking carriage demo from our hosts! We had the pleasure to welcome in new members and had the privilege to meet and connect the faces to the names of some returning members. We look forward to some sun, green grass and keuring challenges to overcome in the months ahead!

Mountain Time Friesian Club

Mountain Time Friesian Club had an amazing quarter. Kicked off with a logo designed by Katy at Ory Photography (Visit them on facebook).

Arizona had an IFSHA show, Carousel Charity Horse show (Scottsdale, AZ). Members Sean Lennon and his daughter had a great run. She was Champion Hunt Seat junior Amateur on Juel (x Sape). Sean was Reserve Champion Saddle Seat Walk Trot on the young Stella (x Doaitzen). And their mare was Reserve Champion Saddle Seat Open. Congratulations to all of them.

The Meet and Greet with Maiko 373 was a wonderful time for members to visit him and each other.

Colorado had an IFSHA show Colorado Classic Horse Show (Denver, CO). Ariel Cash showed for her first time ever and got first place mares in hand with Walleke (x Jasper). Jenna Boyles showed her stallion Radar (x Anne) to Champion Hunt Seat and Dressage Suitability. Cassie Showed Jenna's horse Radar for a second in Dressage Suitability, it was her first time showing Friesians! It was Gin Huffman's first time showing, she brought her ½ Friesian De Ja Vu for a first in hand and 2nd in Walk Trot open. Allison Gelfand Showed the young Theodoor Sable (x Maiko) for first place Friesian Stallions in hand. She also showed Walleke (x Jasper) in Hunt Seat and Dressage Suitability for a first in Dressage Suitability. Allison had to rush home mid show for the birth of their second foal. Club Members from the Coveyou family came to visit the show and future Junior Rider Ambria got all the oohs and awes of the fans when she hopped on Walleke, the dam of her colt Caspar. There was a great turn out of helpers and visitors. The Friesians definitely turned some heads!

Welcome to the world new babies! Sable Ranch welcomes a strong colt Galileo (Maiko x Sipke). Their second colt of the season is Gabriel (Maiko x Mintse). Both are for sale. This next quarter should be baby filled. Our next shows will be USDF dressage shows followed by a September IFSHA show in Denver CO.

Lone Star Friesian Horse Association

Spring has finally arrived in Texas the long cold spell has stopped, show season has started with the Spectacular First Annual Dallas Charity Horse Show which Lone Star Friesian Horse Club has become a Co-Host along with several other breed Representatives.

The event hosted over 80 horses of different breeds with sponsorships funding the event held at the Historic Dallas State fair grounds in Dallas Texas. For its inaugural season, Show Secretary Robin Drennon and hard working staff of volunteers hit the show circuit with a top notch and well run show. The versatile Friesians were the Hit for the show competing in everything from Driving to In Hand to Western Pleasure to even a "Whiskey Glass Class ". Charity Board member for the event Beverly McGowan was so happy to see that funds were raise to help several non profits which helps draw so many horses and riders.

Charity Show Lineup new timer Leona, a Friesian just recently purchase by Caitlin Williams also the Chapter Secretary, took Championship ribbons in Dressage hack, Period Costume, and Halter mares. Klaas B was the crowd favorite in several events, his handler Tom Pollard the Chapter Show secretary owned by Mark and Beverly McGowan took home their fair share Champion Stallion, Champion saddle seat, and won overall Champion Friesian, he also was ask to come back to compete in the All breed Championship. The beautiful Ytsje P also owned by the McGowan's was true to the breed she was Champion Liberty which she got the crowd fired up. She also won with her Junior Rider and new member Charlee Proctor in Dressage Hack and English Pleasure Hunt seat and won Overall Junior Rider Championship at the show. The well deserved High Point Champion was Cobus Fan Koldykl this phenomenal gelding was shown by three exhibitors, Caitlin Williams, Tom Pollard, and Junior Rider Rachel Tierney. Cobus is owned by new chapter member Deb Corson. Cobus also won Champion Western Pleasure and Champion English Pleasure Hunt Seat, and was ridden also by junior member Rachel Tierney and was Overall Junior Reserve champion. The Dallas Charity Horse Show will return again next spring and continue the success helping nonprofits again. Also FHANA board member Charlotte Dumford came to the Dallas Charity Show to see, visit and help Lone Star Friesian Horse club, members enjoyed her visit and her insight on the Friesian Horse.

Member Lynne Mullin recently had a new foal her mare, Saartje who gave birth to a beautiful Hessel Colt named Zara (Hessel X Rinste) baby is huge and doing wonderful. Congratulations to Lynne for this beautiful colt.

Past president Heather Blaylock and her Husband Bryan Blaylock of Wind Dancer Ranch were picked again to ride, teach, and do liberty work for the second US visit to Texas of the World Famous Duo, Magali Delgado and Frederic Pigon, star of Cavallia, they had participated in the first tour in 2016. It was a amazing three days of intensive teaching and learning. There was also a wonderful dinner Saturday night where guests saw the previews of their new show EQI, hopefully soon to debut here in the USA. They will coming back to Texas and the Blaylocks will be teaching again with their Friesians. The Blaylocks also spend the past year learning a technique called flowtrition. Federic Pignon was the first non medical person to be taught this modality, and the teacher Dr. Lance Wright was able to help the world famous Andalusion stallion Templado using this method. This technique is used by Frederic and Dr. Wright on their Friesians Stallions in shows as well as other horses. The Blaylocks have graduated from this schooling and actively use it on their herd as well as other horses and their owners.

Lone Star Friesian Horse Club will be attending the Dallas Dressage Club shows in the coming months as well several other local shows to promote Junior riders. Chapter President and also a CDL specialist for Ross and Mathews P.C Mark McGowan will be conducting several seminars concerning new CDL and commercial equine trailering laws that effect many people who travel to shows and events he will have demos and answer questions to help horse owners understand how to stay in compliance with these laws when traveling. Also Mr. McGowan has been driving new horses with the help of Gene Brown who is a excellent driving trainer in Texas and is ready to drive in any discipline per Mr. Brown.

Lone Star Friesian Horse Club welcomes all horse owners to join us on Facebook and follow us at events for the latest shows, medical updates and horse care with active posts on current events and news.
